Seniors

Memories of classes and activities lingered

As the Seniors looked back on their early high school years, many memories of classes and activities lingered in their minds. With much excitement and anticipation they entered C.H.S. in September, 1964 to begin their freshman year. Because of overly anxious seniors and their misuse of axle grease, this was the last year for Freshman Initiation. Under the leadership of their president, Dean Stamp, they were the first class to adopt a foster child.

More experienced, the graduating class of 1968 again entered C.H.S. in 1965 under the treasured title, "Upperclassmen." Emil Zavadil, sophomore president, helped them to earn money for next year's prom and luncheon expenses.

As juniors, in 1966, they broke school tradition and ordered round class rings. Junior president, Greg Young, organized various money-making projects. The junior class play, "I Remember Mama," was a smashing success which greatly boosted the class treasury. As a result of these efforts, the class was able to meet all of its expenses with a balance on hand! The prom, "Realm Beneath The Sea," and the Junior-Senior Luncheon, were enjoyed by members of the junior and senior classes.

As mighty Seniors, the Class of '68, entered C.H.S. for the last time, they faced a difficult and busy year, full of important decisions and varied activities. The 96-member class elected Greg Young to serve his second consecutive year as president. In the spring, the Seniors were the honored guests of the Junior Class at the Junior-Senior Prom. Class Day, Baccalaureate, and Commencement ended the year's memorable events. Yes, the Seniors will look back on their high school life as a "lasting, high and happy memory."

Memories of this classroom will not be soon forgotten.

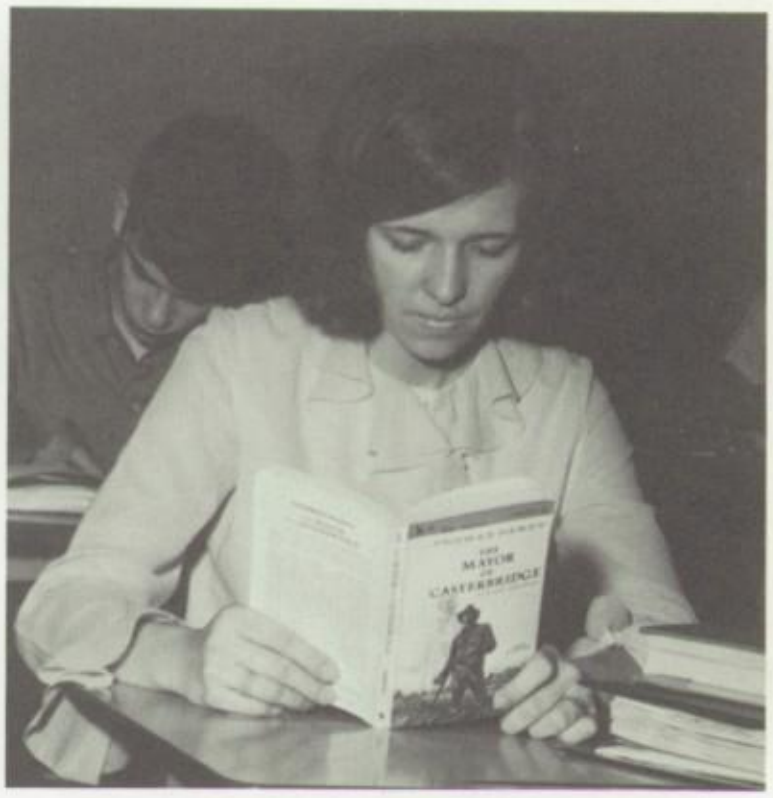
Stained glassware intrigued Debbie Hudson and Marilyn Baker.



Kathy Barrow explored the world of classics.

The Class of '68 began their plans for graduation early to avoid last minute rush. At the end of their Junior year, Mr. Davis was designated as photographer for the senior pictures, which were taken in late August.

After the Seniors returned to school in the fall, they were measured and fitted for caps and gowns. The ordering of announcements and name cards was the last item of the agenda. After this was completed, the Seniors were free to organize their own preparations, such as open houses and parties. The commencement speakers, with the assistance of Miss Esenwein, slaved away preparing their speeches for the big night. All this planning and preparation proved to be worthwhile in the end, and made graduation one of the Seniors' most memorable experiences.

Dave Altomare was measured for his cap and gown.

Year ended quickly

As the end of the Senior year approached, time seemed to fly—from months, to weeks, to days. Those few remaining days were filled with various projects and activities. One of the biggest headaches was research papers. The Seniors spent many long hours of hard work to complete these papers. As the past four years of high school drew to a close, experiments were finished, papers and books were handed in, and final exams were taken. Meanwhile, the Class of '68 made preparations for Class Day on May 23, and Baccalaureate on May 26. These events soon led to Commencement, the climax of those memorable high school days, and the starting point for an entirely different life.

During the past year, much knowledge was gained with basic equipment like this.

Mighty Clippers

Desire and hustle were the building blocks of the Clippers. The difficult task of molding a successful team began in June '67 with a physical fitness program designed by Coach Bellisari.

The team, with the help of the Booster Club, started the construction of the locker room addition which was the pride of the team. With many hours of volunteered help and team effort, the locker room was ready the second day of summer practice.

During the last two weeks of August, one could hear the snappy count of the team doing calisthenics at 8:15, which started the morning practice session that lasted for two hours. Lunch was then furnished by the Booster Club. After a rest and study period, the players met with their coaches to discuss the fine points of positions, team work, and rules. Weight lifting came after a testing period and then another two-hour practice session. At 5 o'clock the team yelled three big "Go Clippers" and headed for the showers.

After summer practice and three scrimmages, the Clippers were ready. They roared to eight straight victories which vaulted them into 5th place in the A.P. and U.P.I. ratings. The Clippers then dropped two very close games to Lisbon and East Palestine finishing 15th in the state in both the A.P. and U.P.I. ratings.

The most satisfying victory of the year was the 27-0 chopping of Minerva. For the team effort, Coach Bellisari was named "Coach of the Week" by Denny Barrett of W.K.B.N.—T.V. He also spoke to the Curbstone Coaches, a select businessmen's group in Youngstown.

Grueling practice sessions paid off

Gridiron Scores

BEAVER LOCAL—Saturday, September 9, the Clippers defeated Beaver Local 14-0 in a rain soaked home opener. After a first half full of nervousness and miscues, the Clippers settled down to their usual hard-fought performance. Key play of the game came when Gary Gregg returned a punt 62 yards for a score. Final score, 14-0.

CARROLLTON—The Clippers ran up a decisive second victory when they beat the Carrollton Warriors, 21-7. The hard-nose football played by the Clippers proved too much for the big, brawny Warriors, while the fans cheered their team to the second win of the season.

POLAND—The Clippers traveled to Poland to enjoy a successful afternoon. The offensive scored easily and the defensive allowed only one touchdown as Columbiana rolled to a 38-6 victory.

MINERVA—The Clippers displayed overpowering line play as they rolled to a surprising 27-0 triumph over the Minerva Lions on the Minerva field. Our defense held the Lions to 74 total yards, while our offensive gained 248 total yards. This was the Clippers fourth triumph without a loss.

CANFIELD—The Clippers soared to their fifth straight victory in front of the homecoming queen and her court, as they defeated the Canfield Cardinals 28-6. The Clippers, only an A school rolled to their fifth win over AA schools.

LEETONIA—The Clippers turned Leetonia Bears to docile cubs as the Clippers soared to a 28-15 victory over the Bears. The Bears turned out to be our sixth victim as the enormous crowd of Bear fans, at their own stadium, looked on in distress. Although we beat the Bears by 13 points, they proved to be the toughest opponent in the first six games.

SEBRING—Friday evening, October 20, the Clippers pounded the Sebring Trojans, 48-0, in front of the proud Clipper parents. George Lynn began the slaughter as he blocked a Sebring punt on the Sebring 28.

UNITED—The Clippers wasted little time getting on the scoreboard against United, as they scored 13 points in the first quarter and added 21 in the second quarter for a 34-0 lead at halftime. They added an additional 13 points in the third quarter to go on to an easy 47-0 win and their eighth victory and no losses.

LISBON—The Clippers had their eight-game winning streak snapped by Lisbon on a rain-soaked field. Although the Clippers led statistically, the old Statue of Liberty play, used on the conversion attempt, gave the Blue Devils an 8-7 victory.

EAST PALESTINE—The Clippers lost their last hope for Tri-County as the Bulldogs squeezed a 14-10 victory over the Clippers. The Clippers gave this away game all they had, yet it was not superior play which they lacked. The Clippers dominated all of the statistics except passing, yet the Bulldogs kept us out of Tri-County.

"Big Red" breaks through.

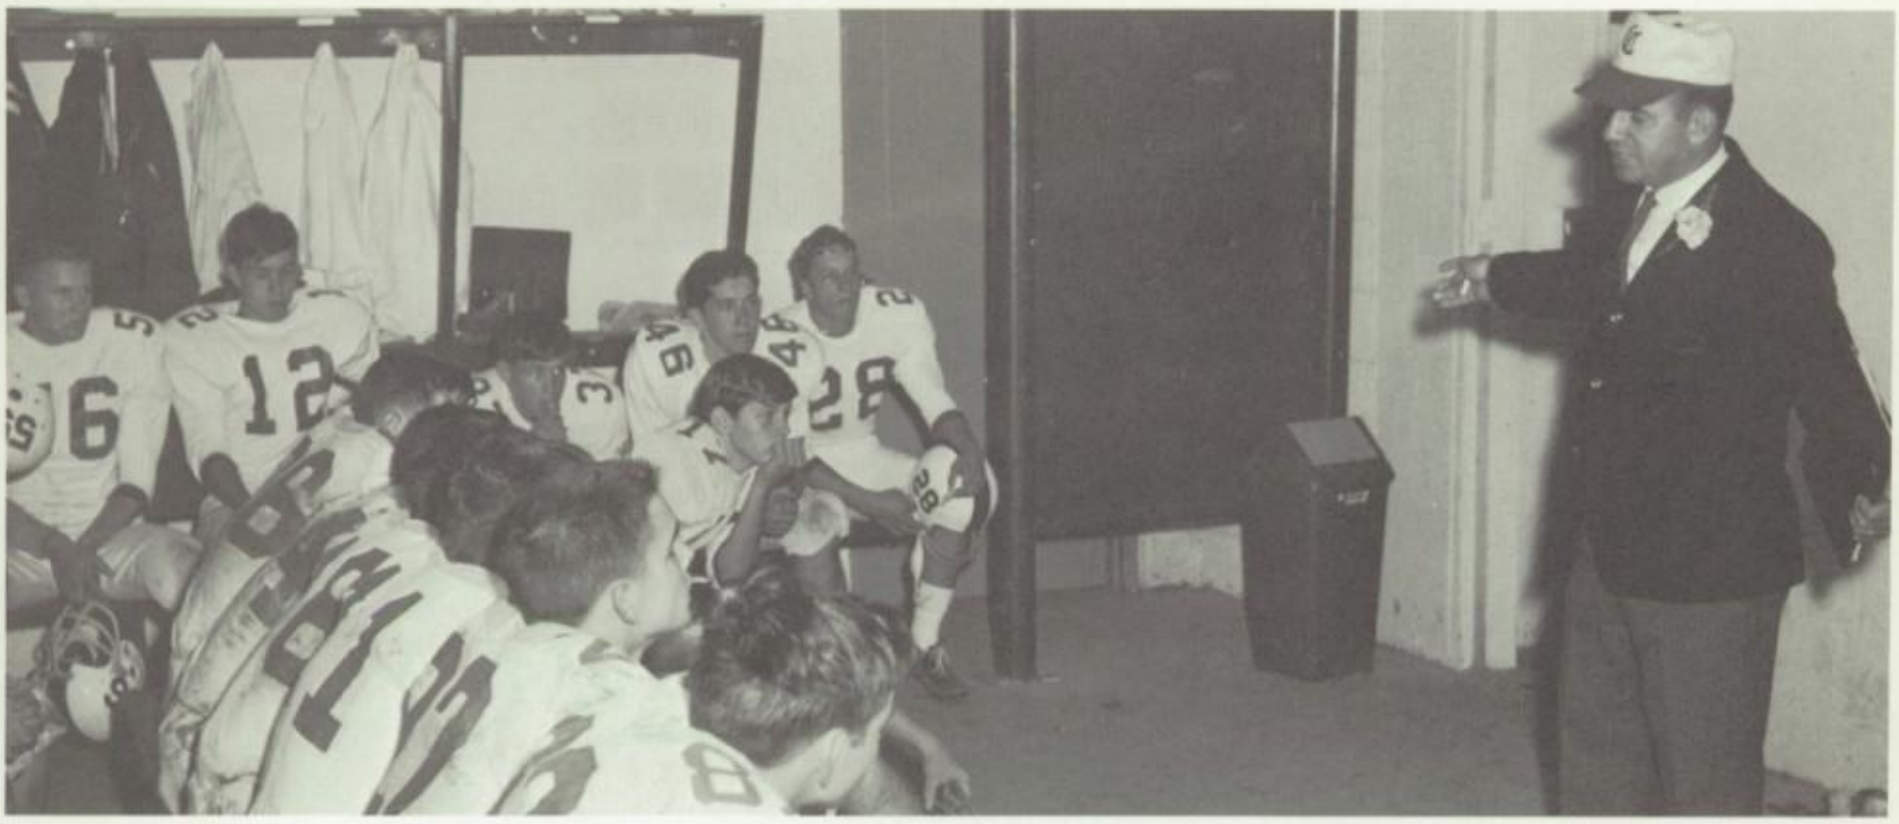
The 1967 Junior Varsity Football squad upheld the tradition of Clipper competitive spirit. They extended their previous 7-0 record to 12-0 before bowing to the AA teams of Salem, East Liverpool, and Fitch. Long hours of practice with the Varsity team have taught the Reserves the discipline, skill, stamina and will power needed for a successful season. The talent discovered and advanced by coaches Hutton and Ramsey indicates a strong Clipper team in the future.



Necessary adjustments were made—and the Clippers rolled.

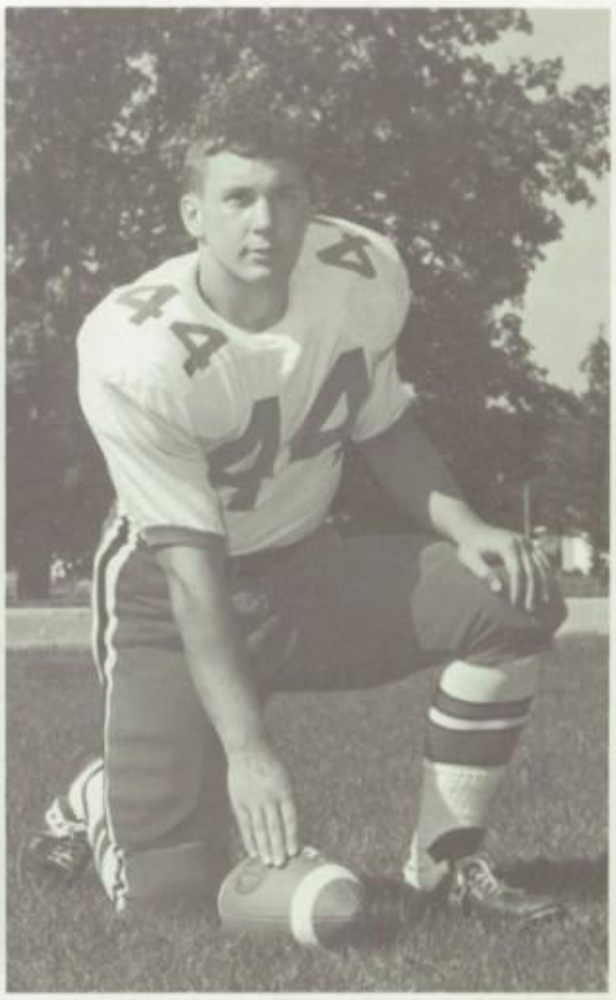
Powerful Seniors dominated

GEORGE LYNN—George, the Clipper co-captain, scored an amazing total of 14 points while on defense, the longest run being 30 yards. His hard work earned him a position on first team Tri-County, first team All-County, and honorable mention on State.

BILL WARD—Bill, Co-captain and our leading rusher, carried the pigskin 202 times for a remarkable total of 997 yards. His outstanding work won him first team Tri-County, first team All-County, second team All Northeastern Ohio, and third team All-Ohio.

George Lynn



Bill Ward

Dave Altomare

DAVE ALTOMARE—Dave received his first varsity letter this year, filling in at both defensive and offensive tackle. His fine blocking helped to open many off-tackle plays.

Bob Antram

BOB ANTRAM—Bob, although injured in the Louisville scrimmage, helped our team overpower the once mighty Leopards and bring home a victory.

Al Barber

AL BARBER—Al, a senior, earned his first varsity letter this year playing end. His fine blocking helped our backs to make many fine gains on end runs.

Dennis Bogdan

DENNIS BOGDAN—Although playing his first year with the Clippers, Dennis proved to be a very good middle guard. His fine tackling in the United game helped our team tremendously in the victory.

JEFF GARSTICK—Jeff, a long side end, won his first varsity letter this year. His downfield blocking helped our backs to break away for many fine runs.

ROGER HAYES—Roger won his first varsity letter this year playing outside tackle. His blocking helped to open large gaps in the defensive line.

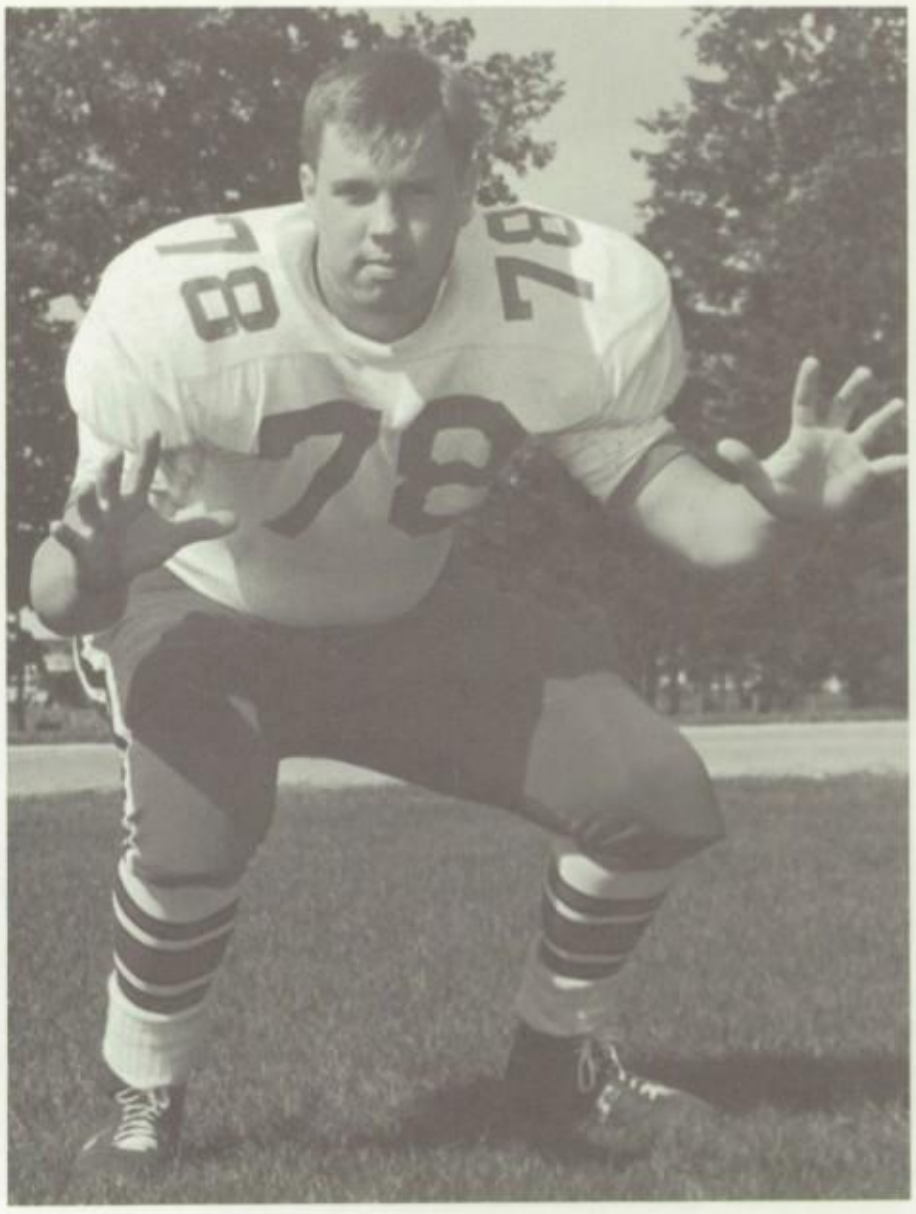
BILL GELA—Bill received honorable mention on the Tri-County team. He passed 74 times during the season, completing 33 for 495 yards or an average of 15 yards per pass.

JIM MILLER—"Fuzzy" received his first varsity letter playing defensive halfback. Jim's enthusiasm proved irreplaceable when the going got tough.

GREG GUSTAFSON—Greg won his second varsity letter as a wingback and defensive cornerback. His great tackling ability proved to be a tremendous asset.

DAVE MORRIS—Dave, a fullback, landed in the backfield of second team Tri-County and first team All-County. He carried the ball 155 times for 695 yards.

BILL CYRUS—Bill received his second varsity letter as offensive and defensive tackle. Because of his constant effort and dedication, he was named to the first team Tri-County, first team All-County, and first team State, a position never before held by a Clipper athlete. No one will ever forget his constant drive and determination that made both the offensive and defensive lines the finest in Ohio.



Bill Cyrus

Cyrus won position on first team All-State

Rick Noel

RICK NOEL—Rick received his first varsity letter as the Clipper center, and was best offensive lineman several times. He was given honorable mention on the All-County team.

Don Reash

DON REASH—Don, offensive tackle and defensive end, received honorable mention on the Tri-County team and first team defensive end on the All-County team.

Joe Scott

JOE SCOTT—Joe, winning his third letter, played both offensive and defensive linebacker. He won the Mayhem award several times and honorable mention on All-County.

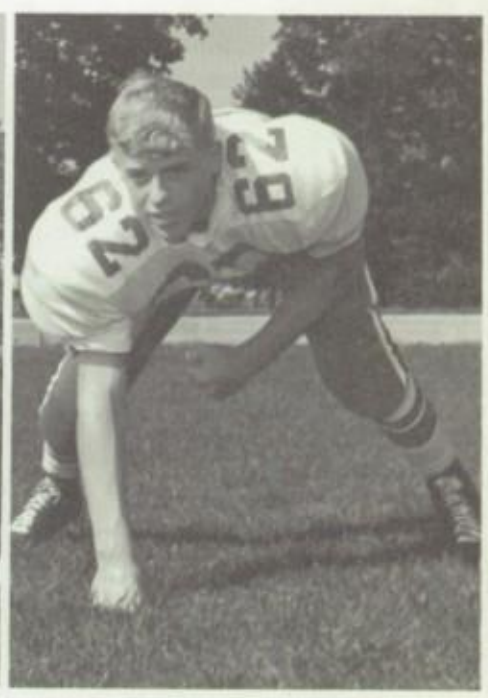
John Lower

Garey Schmidt



Dave Weikart

TOM WEIKART—Tom won his first varsity letter as defensive halfback and offensive tailback. His fine running ability proved valuable in helping our team achieve such a fine record this year.

BOB HUM—"The Toe" received his second varsity letter as a place kicking specialist. He kicked a total of 24 extra points. His kicking ability will be a great asset to next year's team.

JACK WENDEROTH—"Wahoo's" ability as offensive and defensive tackle helped him to earn his second varsity letter. His tremendous defensive playing helped make our line one of the best in Tri-County.

JOHN LOWER—John, playing defensive cornerback, received his first varsity letter this year as a junior. John worked hard and played first-team cornerback until hampered by a mid-season injury.

EMIL ZAVADIL—Emil won his second varsity letter as defensive middle guard. His outstanding and determined effort in the East Palestine game earned him the Mayhem Aggressor award.

GAREY SCHMIDT—Garey only a junior, won his first varsity letter as wingback. Garey, who averaged 4.6 yards per carry, will be a great asset to next year's Clipper backfield.

GARY GREGG—Gary, only a junior, won his second varsity letter as quarterback and defensive halfback. Gary threw 10 passes during the season, completing 4 for 35 yards or an average of 8.7 yards.

DAVE WEIKART—Dave's hard work and dedication helped to win the Mayhem Aggressor award several times and also to be named most outstanding Clipper defensive lineman.

On Friday, October 6, the Columbiana Clippers were hosts to the Canfield Cardinals for the 1967-68 Football Homecoming.

The traditional "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" was played by the Clipper band as Queen Amy Pancake was escorted onto the field by George Vestfals. Cathy Istnick and Nancy Reash, her attendants, were escorted by Tom Smith and Tom Golden respectively.

The regal ceremony reached its climax when Amy was crowned by co-captain George Lynn. Co-captain Bill Ward instated Cathy and Nancy. Then Amy, Cathy, and Nancy were escorted to their seats upon the red and white float decorated by the Pep Club.

With the homecoming court looking on, the powerful Clippers were again victorious as they stomped the Cardinals 28-6 for their fifth straight victory.

After the game, the Student Council sponsored a dance at Joshua Dixon School in honor of the homecoming court.

season highlights

In spite of the snowy weather, there was a good turnout for the 1967-68 Basketball Homecoming at C.H.S. for the Minerva game on Saturday, January 13.

Betty Dunbar reigned as queen with Debbie Hudson and Gayle Warner as her attendants.

While the band played the soft strains of the Homecoming song, "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi," Betty Dunbar was escorted to the center of the basketball court by Bill Ward where she was crowned by co-captain, George Vestfals.

Gayle Warner, escorted by Rick Noel, and Debbie Hudson, escorted by Tom Randolph, were crowned by co-captain, D.J. Gaughan.

After the coronation, Betty welcomed Minerva and Columbiana to the Homecoming game and wished both teams the best of luck.

The Clipper team presented the Homecoming court with an overwhelming victory over the Lions—64-47.

Following the game, "The Pythgorian Theorem" provided entertainment for the Homecoming dance at Joshua Dixon School.

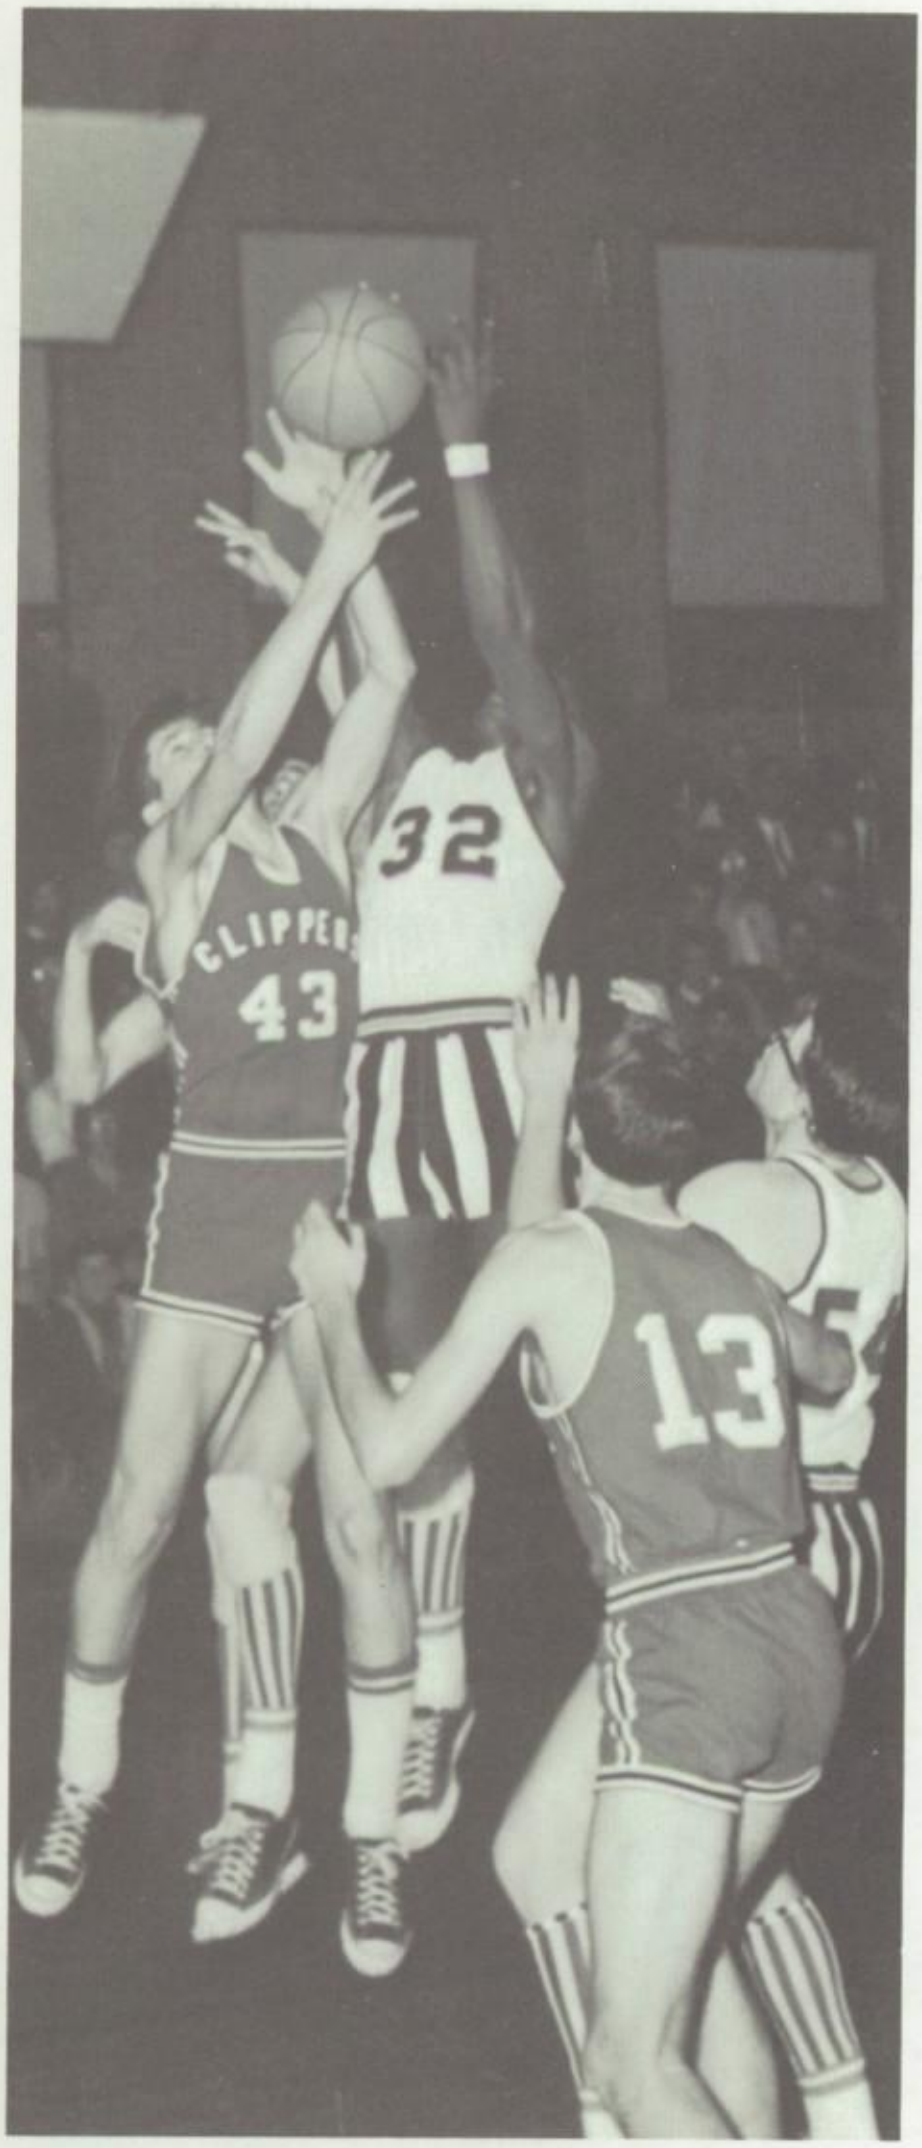
improved with "hustle and harmony"



George Vestfals vied for a rebound.

The 1967-68 basketball season can be described with the words hustle and harmony. The Clippers were often outsized by opponents, but with their determination and team play, they achieved many victories.

Coach Berryman set three goals for this year's squad. These were to have a winning season, to win Tri-County and to go as far as possible in the state tournaments. Only one was achieved. The Clippers finished with a 13-8 record and managed to finish third behind East Palestine and Poland in Tri-County. The squad fought their way to the finals of the Sectional tournament, only to lose to Sebring in the waning seconds.

After playing .500 ball through the first two-thirds of the season, the Clippers put together a five-game winning streak before being abruptly stopped in the tournaments. These five games included victories over Lisbon, Minerva, Leetonia, United and Jackson-Milton.

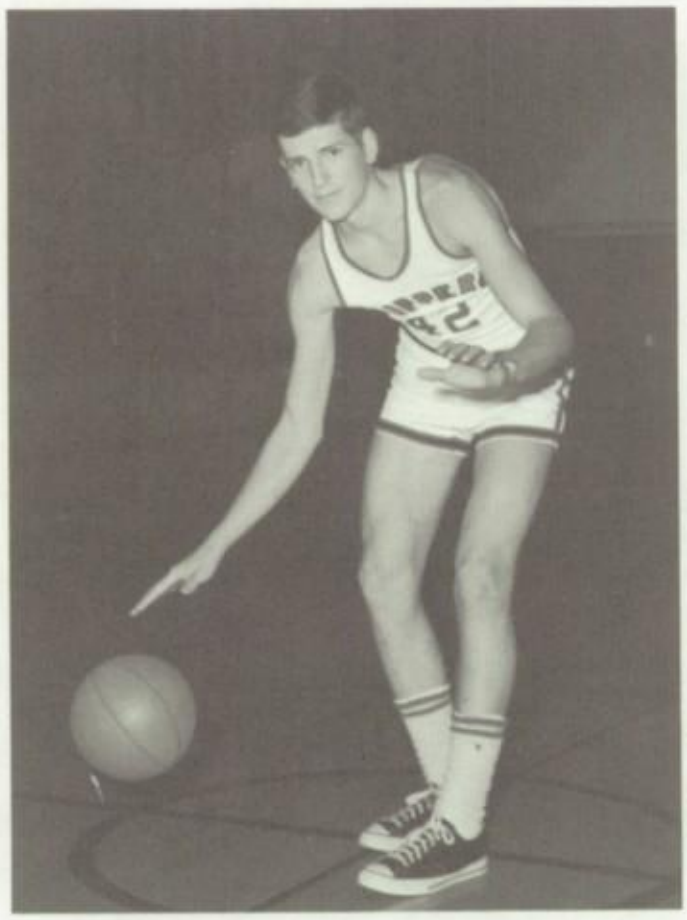
Even with this streak of wins, the season was highlighted by a pair of victories over arch rival Leetonia. Although not doing as well against East Palestine, the Clippers managed excellent games for three quarters only to be overpowered in the final quarter in both contests. Another highlight was the overwhelming homecoming victory over Minerva. An interesting note on the campaign was that the Clippers managed to gain revenge on their opponents. Only East Palestine and Poland managed to pin double setbacks on the Clippers.

The 1967-68 season was just an average one. More important than victory and glory was the ability, determination, and respect gained by the individual squad members.

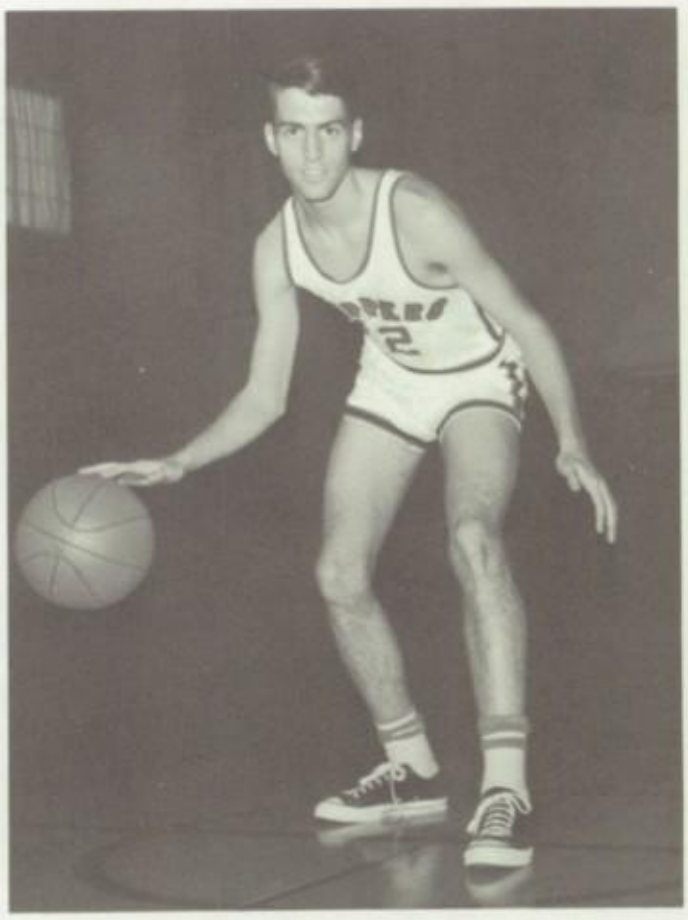
Coach Berryman and Coach Hutton looked over team statistics.

Three Senior lettermen earned

Co-Captains

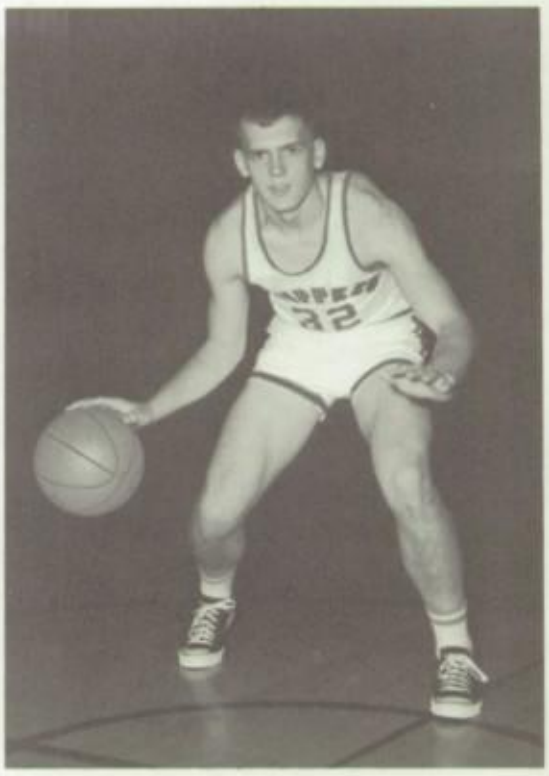


GEORGE VESTFALS—George, a starter for two years, was one of the team's co-captains. His good moves and speed enabled him to outclass much taller opponents. He was the team's leading rebounder, clearing 239 rebounds for an eleven per game average. George was second in scoring with a 14-point average and first in recoveries with 44. George earned an Honorable Mention on the Tri-County All Star Team. The loss of his powerful rebounding will hurt next year's team.



D.J. GAUGHAN— D.J., a two-year veteran and one of the co-captains, scored equally well on drives or from the outside. He led the team in field goals and in field goal percentage, shooting 40% from the field and totaling 310 points for a 15-point average. He was also a versatile floor man, strong in assists and held balls. D.J. was selected to the Tri-County All-Star Team and received an Honorable Mention on the Northeast Ohio All-Star Team.

BILL GELA—Bill earned his second varsity letter as a forward and received an Honorable Mention on the Tri-County All-Star Team. Bill was our best free throw shooter making 61 of 88 for 69%. He averaged 9 points per game, including 16 against West Branch which led our team to its first victory. Bill gave a 100% effort at all times and set a great example for the underclassmen to follow.

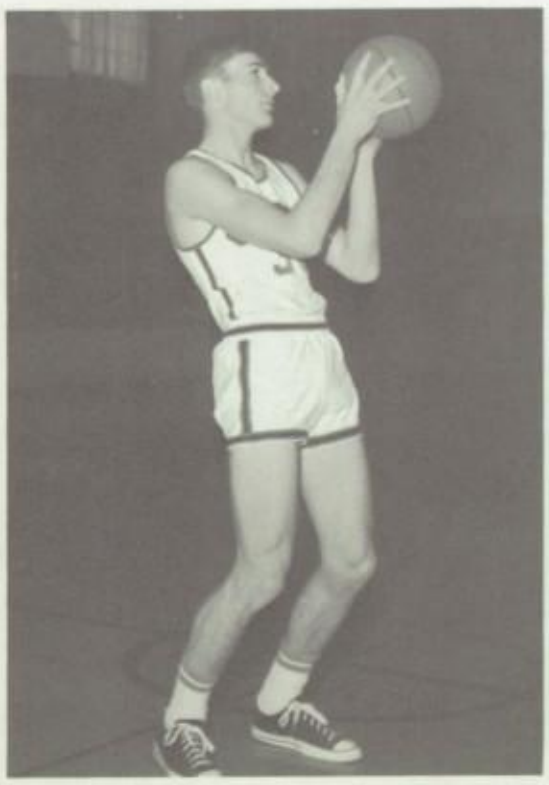


positions on "All-Star" teams

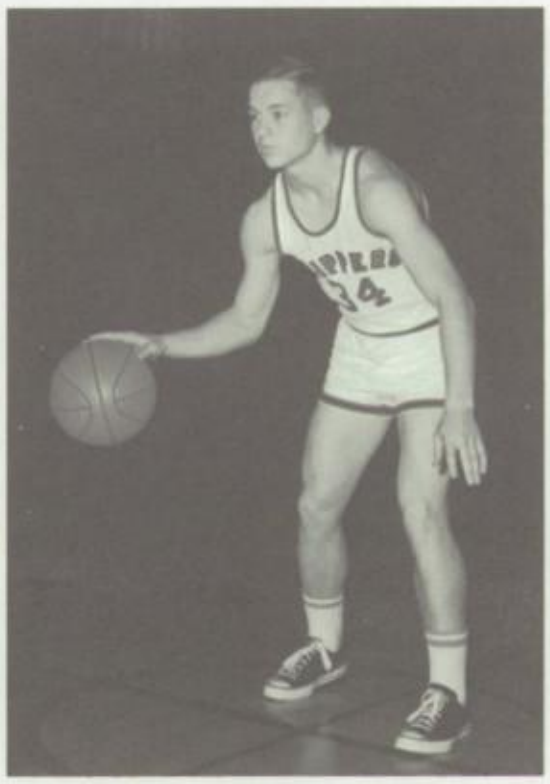
GREG GUSTAFSON—"Gus" was a hustling, unselfish ball player who could always be counted on to get needed recoveries and assists. He was also valuable working against the press because he had the finger-tip control necessary for a good ball handler. Gus, a senior, will be a loss to the Clippers next year.

AL "PISTOL PETE" BARBER—Al earned his first varsity letter as a pivot, but he earned his nickname as a guard. His teammates called him "Pistol Pete" because of his incredibly accurate setshot. Al's humor and high spirits were a continual boost to team morale and will be deeply missed by next year's Clippers.

GARY GREGG—Gary, a junior guard, was a sound all-around player whose natural ability and speed put him in the starting line up. Gary aided the Clipper offense with 120 points and was also a strong rebounder for his size. Because he is the only returning letterman, next year's team will depend heavily on him for leadership.



GREG YOUNG—"Animal" came on strong to give the Clippers a boost at the end of the season. He averaged 11 points in the last six contests after his outstanding work on the boards had won him a starting position. Greg was a hustler as well as a strong rebounder and led the team in held balls by tying up the opposition 20 times during the season.



DAVE MORRIS—Dave possessed great speed which helped to spark many Clipper victories. His fast hands and quick reactions made him a good defensive player. Dave always worked hard for the coaches, at practice and in the games, and he will be missed by next year's team.

BOB DAILEY—Bob, a versatile junior, played all positions well. His greatest assets were his aggressive rebounding and determination. He was a real scrapper who could always be counted on to come through in the clutch. Bob had a great attitude as well as a lot of ability.

Cheerleaders sell Clipper pins

FRESHMEN: Leda Knisely, Lana Warner, Terry Stamp, Susan Poirier.

EIGHTH: Carolyn Armstrong, Rhonda Tipton.

RESERVE: Karen Weir, Lynne Berryman, Sassie Jones, Mary Bookwalter.

Under the supervision of Miss Cranston and Mrs. Ferrall, the Varsity and Reserve Cheerleaders cheered the football and basketball teams on to victory. They not only cheered at games but also headed the Pep Club, planned pep rallies and organized a spirit jug contest. Selling ribbons, football and basketball player pins, and homecoming corsages were their major money-making projects. The Reserve Cheerleaders cheered at the tournament games for their first time. Together with the Varsity Cheerleaders, they created original cheers and planned humorous skits.

During football season, the Freshmen and Junior-Hi Cheerleaders could be seen cheering for their combined teams. However, when their basketball season began, the Freshmen and Junior Hi cheered separately to lead their teams on to a winning season.

As special attractions, all the cheerleaders designed a float for the football homecoming and festively decorated the gymnasium for the basketball homecoming.

record in four seasons

The '68 Clipper track squad had an impressive season. As well as having a fine group of seniors, such as tri-captains—Al Barber, Bill Ward, and Greg Young, the team also showed promise for the future with underclassman Garey Schmidt. A junior, he is one of the best Clipper dash runners in recent years and placed 3rd in the 100-yard dash at the Regional Meet with a time of 10.1 sec. Mark Young, a sophomore, jumped 20 feet 5 inches at the Regional Meet to capture first place in the long jump. Both boys qualified for the State Meet, May 25.

The Clippers won all of their dual meets and placed in 5 of 7 of the larger meets.

Coach Rich Berryman led his 1968 golf team to the honored Tri-County championship and to 9th place at the District golf meet. Long practices at Valley Golf Course lifted the Clipper record to 16 wins and 20 losses. Seniors Bill Gela and Roy Jackson sparked the team with their game averages of 38 and 39 respectively. Dale Reash, Cliff Newell, and Jim Powers also proved to be very helpful with their averages in the 41 and 42 area. Personal distinction was also obtained by Jim Powers who was low medalist in the Tri-County meet with a 73, and Roy Jackson with a 75 for 6th place in the District meet. The low scores of the juniors and sophomores should excel those of any teams next year.

Roy Jackson stroked a long putt.

"Clipper" Staff met deadline

Ass't. Editor—Elizabeth Crawford, Editor-in-Chief—Gayle Warner, and Ass't. Editor—D.J. Gaughan made many important decisions.

Stop! The book you are glancing through right now was written and illustrated by the 1968 Clipper Staff. Deadline was the word they feared and dreaded most. Why? Because deadlines meant more thinking, more writing, more typing, and longer hours. Their job wasn't easy, for sixteen more pages were added to this year's book with a photo essay, more clubs, and more sports pages as features. The product which you hold in your hand is an accomplishment of many hard working individuals including the yearbook advisor, Mrs. Jackson, who gave much time and assistance in publishing the 1968 "Clipper."

"Anyone want to buy a Beacon subscription?"

Lynn Daniels, Jr. editor, learned the "ropes."

Beacon Staff worked hard to publish the paper.

Under the direction of a new advisor, Miss Hosack, the seniors on the newspaper staff published the 1967-68 Beacon. Seventh and eighth graders reporting in with the news of their activities made the paper more interesting for the younger students. A staff composed entirely of juniors received ideas for future use. Lynn Daniels served as the first junior editor of the Beacon at C.H.S. To help students plan for their future, two colleges were reviewed in each issue. The Beacon had a broad coverage of all sports and activities going on at C.H.S.

Rick Noel and Tom Golden explained the new procedure of electing class officers.

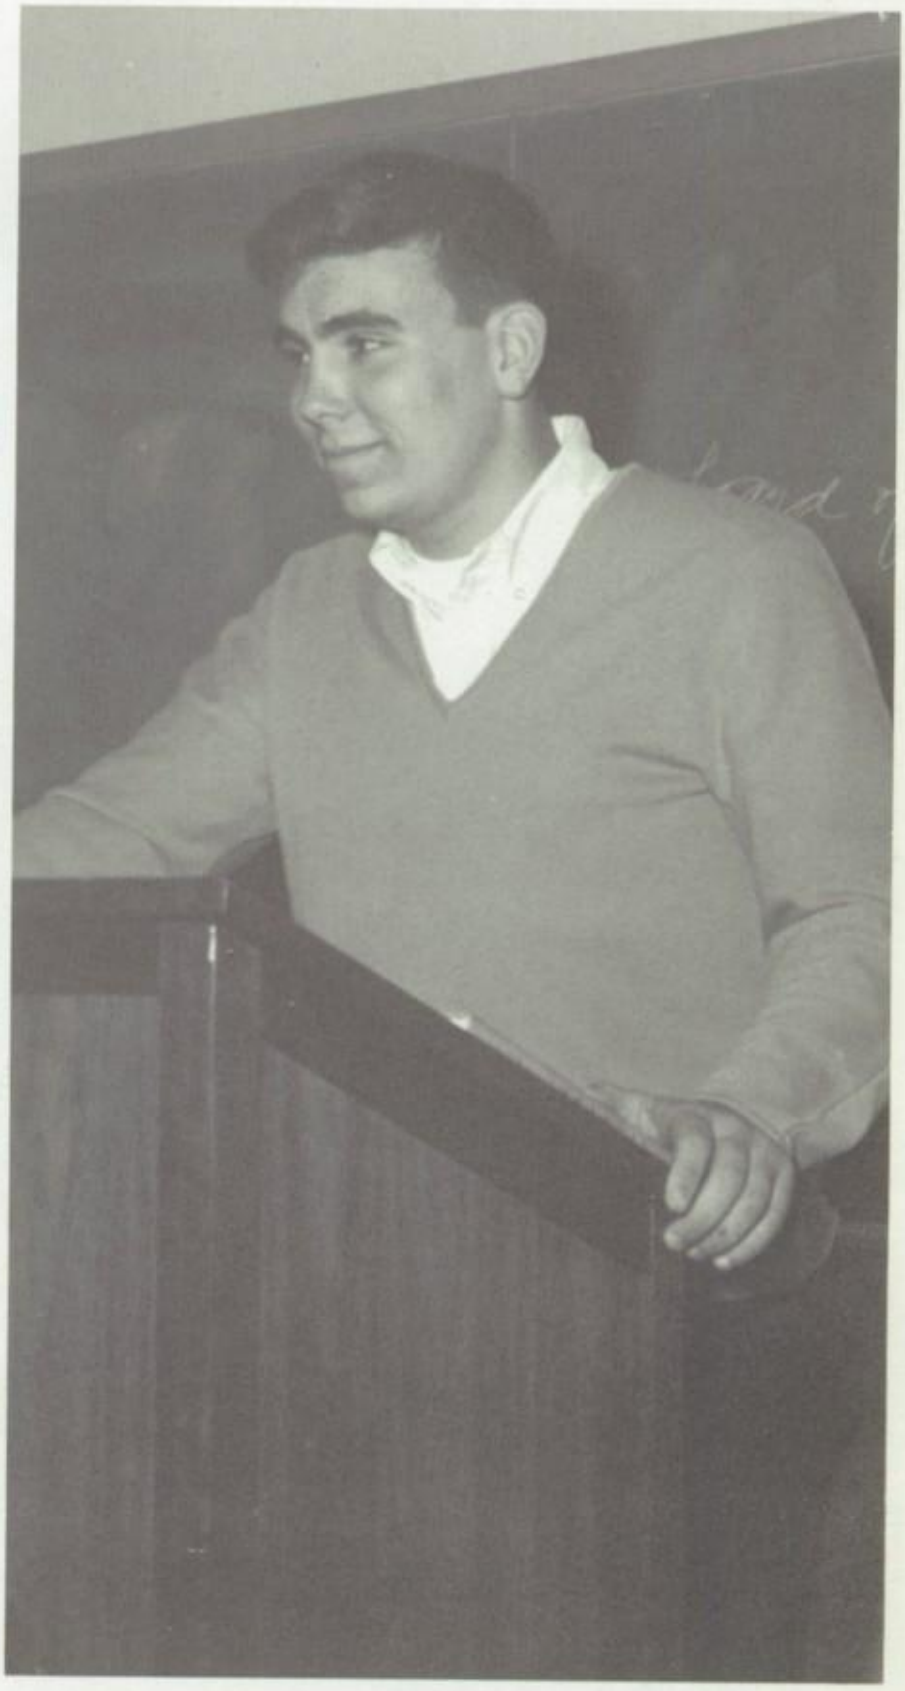
Student Council worked hard to improve C.H.S.

Enthusiastic students tried hard to win the WHOT Spirit contest!

The student council, the governing body of the school, was an active organization. They were responsible for the success of the Pigskin Prom, the after-game dances, and most important—the arrangements made for the basketball and football homecomings.

The Council was also busy in many other areas. During the WHOT spirit drive, a mass "write-in" to urge on "Big Red" spirit was sponsored. They played a big part in the changing of our Alma Mater to a more appropriate song written to "Edelweiss." This governing body also initiated a new honor roll system, which is still being contemplated by the Board of Education.

Finally, the method of electing class officers and cheerleaders was renovated by this group. This new method eliminated much wasted time and confusion and elevated to office those with the best qualifications and capabilities.



Rick Noel, president, conducted one of several productive meetings of that year.

Newly elected members pledged to uphold N.H.S. standards.

Jean Ward was pinned by happy mother.

N.H.S. inducted sixteen new members

The National Honor Society was created for high school juniors and seniors who could measure up to the high ideals and standards of society through qualities of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Putting the first emphasis upon scholarship, the club selected students who had maintained a "B" or better grade average.

The high school gymnasium on February 27, 1968 was the setting for this year's impressive induction service. Previously elected members of the N.H.S., Al Barber, Bill Cyrus, Bill Gela, Joanne Lazear, and Dean Stamp, presided over the tapping ceremonies of ten newly selected seniors and six juniors.

Along with the assistance of the Student Council, the National Honor Society worked on projects to revise a new honor roll system and to initiate new procedures in electing class officers and cheerleaders. The organization also purchased a bulletin board.

Delegates learned principles of government

Girls' State delegates Susan Souder and Joyce Naughton and alternates Alice Engberg and Linda Rapp scanned official convention materials before leaving.

Susan Souder and Joyce Naughton served as Columbiana High School's delegates to the annual Girls' State convention June 15-23 at Capital University in Columbus. Selected as alternates were Alice Engberg and Linda Rapp. Boys' State delegates, Cliff Newell and Bruce Bieshelt, went to Athens, Ohio. Their alternates were Jim Powers and John Lower. Sponsored by the American Legion and its auxiliary the delegates were elected by a committee on the basis of better than average grades, qualities of leadership, sportsmanship, service, personality, and ability to compete with others of like standing. During their stay, the Boy and Girl Staters overtook all city, county, and state positions after vigorous campaign efforts. At the close of the sessions, the delegates departed leaving behind many friends, but carrying with them many fond memories.

Delegates Bruce Bieshelt and Cliff Newell and alternates Jim Powers and John Lower decided on campaign procedures.

"Top Ten" announced at

The annual Awards Day program was held May 21, in the high school auditorium. Mr. Gloss, as Master of Ceremonies, welcomed everyone and introduced each person that presented an award.

After the major awards were distributed, the "Top Ten" seniors were announced for the first time. As each of them came forward, they received an attaché case—compliments of the American Legion.

Mr. Bailey presented awards to students receiving high honors in local, district, and state scholarship competition. Mike Kuzma achieved the highest acclaim by placing second in the state in earth science.

Reverend Clark of the Church of the Nazarene in Columbiana supplemented Awards Day with an interesting talk which offered encouraging and helpful advice to the seniors.

Mr. Gloss then recognized those seniors who had won various scholarships amounting to a total of $60,800.

To conclude an eventful Awards Day program, the basketball, track and golf coaches presented awards to the cheerleaders and the outstanding Clipper athletes.

Dean Stamp received the Pritchard Award.

Band lined up for half-time show.

The "Big C" marched on

Ed Smith—Pres., told Bruce Bieshelt—Vice-Pres. and Ann Fitzpatrick—Sec.-Treas. to watch that eighth note.

The 1967-68 Clipper Marching Band, although only 73 members strong, thrilled the citizens of our area during the band's many performances. Under the direction of their new bandmaster, Mr. James W. Hughes, the band traveled to and performed at 10 football games, the County Fair, the Street Fair, a Christmas parade, Memorial Day parade, and a Fourth of July parade. The pre-game half-time shows were, perhaps, the most spectacular. They included difficult marching routines accompanied by music, majorettes, and outstanding twirling performances by head majorette, Connie Tipton. A few of the songs which delighted the audiences were: "Joshua," "Georgie Girl," "The Gallant Men," and "Swanee."

Columbiana and Poland combined played the National Anthem.

In mid November the Columbiana High School Concert Band got under way. After a week of auditions each member was seated and everyone began working toward a successful winter concert on January 27 entitled "It's Snow Time for Music."

After many hours of practice, the band traveled to New Philadelphia for the District Contest March 30, and received an excellent (II) rating.

Tom Golden was elected as student director of the 1967-68 bands, conducting the band during pep rallies and presenting the new "Alma Mater" at the annual spring concert.

The band presented a fine spring concert on May 10. They played again at Class Day and the seniors made their final appearance at Commencement.

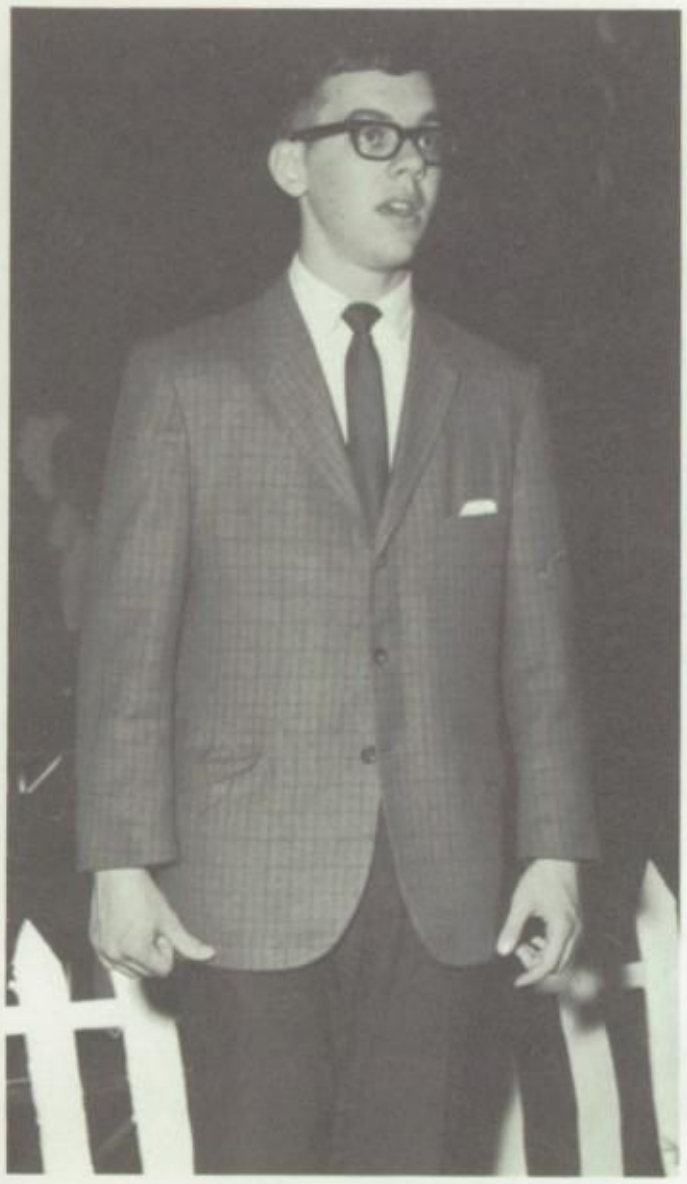
Mixed chorus earned a "I" at State



Ken Beck earned a "I" state rating.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Dale Wadman, the high school mixed chorus led a very successful 1967-68 year.

The Christmas concert, entitled "Sleigh Ride" was the musical group's first major performance. On February 3, the vocalists traveled to the Warren Packard Music Hall to present an annual program.

On March 30, the energetic musicians participated in the district contest at New Philadelphia and received a I rating. This enabled the chorus to compete in state finals. With determination, time, and the strife for perfection, the vocalists performed at Columbus on April 27, and received a superior or I rating for the first time!

The chorus highlighted a most rewarding year by singing their superior rated selections at the annual spring concert.

Boys' choir displayed quality, not quantity.

Still on pitch, boys?

For the second consecutive year the girls' chorus participated in the district contest. Traveling to New Philadelphia on March 30, the girls melodiously sang "Vere," "Beauty," and "Nocturn," and received a I rating. "Columbus or bust," was the cry of these musicians! The girls held a number of bake sales for expenses at Columbus. On April 27 the girls' choir performed at Brookhaven High School in Columbus and received a II rating.

The Boys' Chorus, a newly formed organization, turned out to be a great success. They, too, participated in the District competition at New Philadelphia on March 30 and earned the right to represent Columbiana at State competion in Columbus. The boys, meeting the State competition "head-on," left Columbus with three I's, or a superior state rating, under their belts. The groups finished the year by singing at the annual spring concert.

Junior High choruses performed

The junior high chorus made two major appearances during their 1967-68 year. Their first performance was at the annual Christmas concert. They sang three beautiful numbers which echoed through the air. The choruses, also, made a surprise performance at a chapel assembly. On May 11, the vocalists participated in the solo and ensemble contest and proudly returned from Minerva with thirteen superior or "I" ratings and fourteen excellent or "II" ratings.

Always striving for perfection, the band and choruses demonstrated with the echoing of their songs and voices on May 10 at the annual Spring Concert entitled "Spring." The musical departments presented classical and pop tunes to the near capacity filled colorfully decorated gymnasium. Highlighting the evening was the presentation of the C. H. S. Alma Mater by the band and choruses.

combined for Tri-Hi-Y

Mrs. Elser supervised the organization of the first combined Junior-Senior Tri-Hi-Y at C.H.S. Cathy Dalrymple served as the President and led the group to a rewarding year. Connie Tipton, the Vice-President, was responsible for providing interesting programs at the meetings. Throughout the year, the members enjoyed listening to various speakers. Money was raised by selling calendars. The main service project for the year was the distribution of a food basket during Thanksgiving. This Tri-Hi-Y organization also had teams competing in bowling and basketball leagues sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. The senior members of the group participated in the annual Civic Day Program and the banquet at South Side School on April 18, and attended the Youth-in-Government program at Columbus on April 19-21.

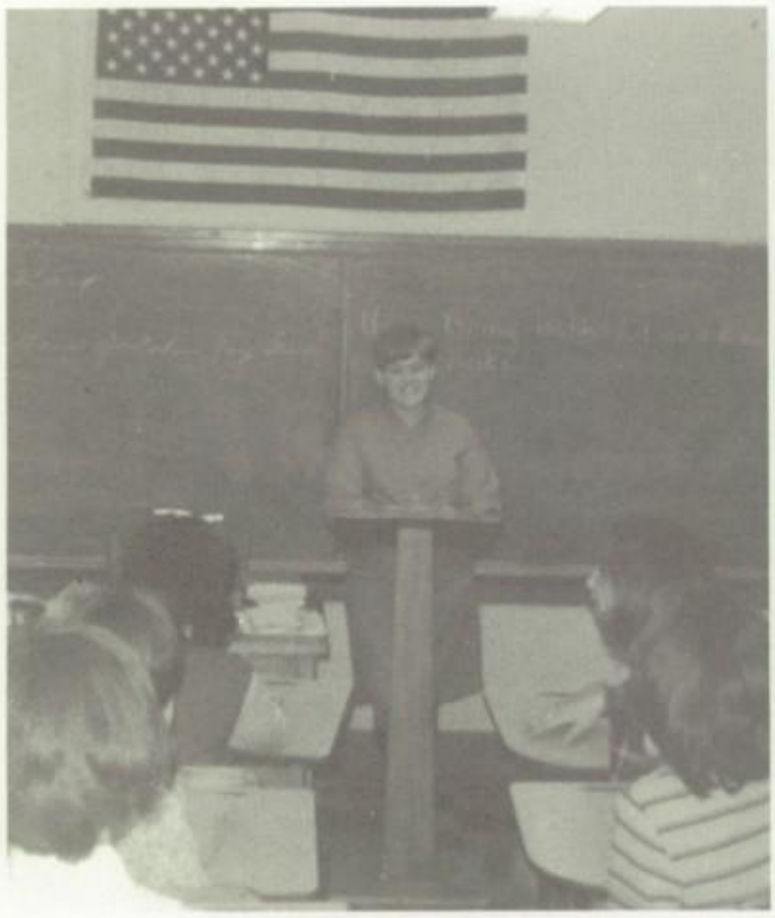
Soph. Tri-Hi-Y sent packages to Viet Nam



This meeting is now called to order.

Members sent books to Viet Nam.

This year's Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y was under the supervision of Mrs. Mason and Mrs. Bowman. Led by president Chris Gela, the sophomores met every other Tuesday. Planning interesting programs, organizing bake sales, and sending boxes to Viet Nam were some of their major projects. They also sponsored a dance on March 16, at Joshua Dixon, at which the "New Breed" played. This dance proved to be their biggest fund raising event. The election of officers for the following year concluded their year as sophomore Tri-Hi-Y members.

Frosh Tri-Hi-Y learned, saved, and served

Having elected officers the last spring under the leadership of Lana Warner as president, the Freshman Tri-Hi-Y had a very successful year.

Special entertainment was provided during two of the meetings. Mrs. Bair, the club's advisor, showed slides of her trip to Hawaii and a soldier who had recently served in Viet Nam spoke to a combined Freshman, Sophomore, Junior-Senior Tri-Hi-Y meeting. Also, on May 7, this organization visited the East Ohio Gas Company where Betty Newton demonstrated some decorative ways to make food appetizing.

During the year the club held two jitney sales as money-making projects.

As a community service project, the girls collected clothing for needy welfare children. Their concluding meeting ended with the election and installation of next year's Freshman Tri-Hi-Y club officers.

Clubs were active in Y.M.C.A. sports

The Junior-Senior Hi-Y had a very active club under the leadership of president, Dave Morris, and advisor, Mr. McDanel.

They were very active in every Y.M.C.A. sponsored sport. The flag football team was organized. Four Columbiana teams entered basketball with two teams finishing first and second. In Hi-Y bowling the club nearly made a clean sweep finishing first, second, and third runners-up. The volleyball team was also successful with the Seniors again placing first and the Juniors, second.

Civics Day on April 18 highlighted the year's activities. On April 19-21 Rick Noel, Jeff Garstick, Dave Morris, and Bill Burns attended the Youth in Government Program in Columbus. The proposed bills were made laws in the model legislature in the State of Ohio.

The Freshman-Sophomore Hi-Y formed two basketball teams and were also actively involved in the volleyball league. The main purpose of the club, as it was for the Junior-Senior Hi-Y was to extend good Christian character and morals throughout the home and community.

Newly formed Latin Club was very active

Under the leadership of their president, Gary Pietras, and their advisor, Mrs. Ferrall, the Latin Club undertook three main projects during the year. On February 8 the Latin Club presented a humorous play entitled, "A Trip Through Roman History." On May 7, the club members rated the Latin projects of the Freshman students. The highlight of the year was the Latin Banquet where members viewed Dr. Dewalt's films of the South Seas.

A "lone" Spanish club meeting.

The Spanish Club met spasmodically throughout the year in order to gain a better understanding of Spanish speaking countries. With Mr. Elia as their new advisor, many interesting speakers were obtained. William Arn showed slides of Guatemala and discussed the everyday life and customs of the people there. Joe Warner, director of the 4-H clubs of Mahoning County, spoke about the I.F.Y.E. (International Foreign Youth Exchange) program and also showed slides of Mexico. The Spanish Club concluded an interesting year by having Mr. Arn return for a second time. He gave an excellent talk on the political situation of Cuba and how Communism has affected the lives of the common people.

Members of the junior and senior classes who were interested in teaching as a career formed the Future Teachers of America. Highlights of the year were the teaching assignments. Twice a year the club members served as teachers at South Side and Joshua Dixon during the parent-teacher conferences. Sponsoring jitney sales during the year, the participants of this club earned money for their scholarship. This honor is awarded annually to some deserving senior in the club. Mr. Warner, the supervisor of this organization, made the presentation on Award's Day. The scholarship is used to further the winner's college education in the teaching profession.

The Future Scientists of America Club had the finest year of activities ever. The 56 members plus their hard working sponsor, Mr. Strausbaugh, traveled to Lordstown General Motors Corporation, Republic Steel in Cleveland and Kaiser Refractories to name a few. The all-day trip to Wooster Agricultural Center proved interesting and exciting, but the greatest achievement of the club proved to be the annual science fair. The fair, held February 14, drew hundreds of people who crowded to see some 300 experiments and exhibits. All the displays were judged according to classification and awards were presented to the top three in each category along with a trophy to the best overall.

F.S.A. members arrived at Lordstown General Motors Corporation.

The purpose of the Home Economics Club, advised by Mrs. Keylor, was to stimulate interest in homemaking. An example, Joe Warner, an I.F.Y.E. member, who related stories and showed slides of his trip to Mexico was one of many exciting guest speakers. Holding jitney sales after school and selling red-and-white Clipper banners were the Club's profit-making projects. After the February 14 P.T.O. meeting, the Home Ec Club and classes presented a fashion show, modeling the outfits they had created. The year was highlighted by a bus trip to the Home and Garden Flower Show in Cleveland.

Interest was the key word in the Art Club. This club wasn't made up of Rembrandts and Picassos, but of students who had some interest in the field of art. Of course, some of the members were good sketchers and painters; but most of them were "semidilettantes," who just "dabbled" in the field.

Besides raising money for a field trip, the club members created a school-news calendar which was posted on the bulletin board across from the office. Each month the Art Club posted the school's upcoming events. Having Mrs. Talbot as their advisor was of great value to this club, because her interest in the members and her artistic talent aided them through one of their most interesting years at C.H.S.

Pep Club sparked Clipper athletes

The Pep Club, headed by the Varsity and backed by the Reserve cheerleaders, helped lead the mighty Clippers to victorious seasons in both basketball and football. Not only did the Pep Club support its team in moments of triumph, but it also upheld school spirit in times of defeat. Besides cheering at pep rallies and games, the pep club's main project was decorating for the homecomings. For football homecoming they built a float, and a red and white heart was constructed for basketball.

Learning and earning combined

Members of the Distributive Education Clubs of America were involved in two particular situations. The first was a classroom. In D.E.C.A. classes, students learned buying and selling techniques in a purely informal atmosphere. In the second situation, they put into action the different techniques they had developed. Area drug stores, jewelry stores, hardware stores, dry cleaning establishments, restaurants, and banks welcomed the help of these trained students. For those planning jobs in the world of business, the Distributive Education Clubs of America provided a strong foundation for them.

projectionists aided staff

Projectionists Joe Scott and Danny Wickline set up for a film.

Many students were willing to sacrifice their time to participate in the service groups at C.H.S. They worked as librarians, projectionists, and nurse's aides.

Supervised by Mrs. Liston, the student librarians performed various duties that were necessary for the maintenance of the school library. These girls were responsible for preparing and distributing forms for overdue books. They also prepared library reports for study hall teachers. The librarians helped Mrs. Liston when magazines, books, and encyclopedias were returned to the library. Catalogues and brochures about vocational guidance were filed.

Mrs. Liston also selected a staff of school projectionists to show movies during school hours and to community organizations. These boys were chosen from a list of interested sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Selection was based on grade average, interest, and scheduled courses.

Chosen and supervised by Mrs. Gloss, the nurse's aides administered simple first aid. Recording the heights and weights of all C.H.S. students on special forms was an important duty. They were responsible for a record of students who came to the room and needed treatment. These girls also notified the student's teacher if that student was in the nurse's room all period. The nurse's aides cleaned the room and kept the supplies in order.

On November 17 and 18 the Junior Class presented "Web of Murder" by Jonathan Troy, under the direction of Miss Lila Harmon and Miss Nancy Bycroft.

The play was a three-act mystery centering around Minerva Ostermann, a rich old widow who had called her family together for the reading of her will. Put under hypnosis by Dr. Adler, Minerva stated that she, along with three other members of her family, would be killed by a poisonous spider. Terrified by this prediction her relatives attempted to leave, only to discover that they were trapped in the strange old mansion.

Touches of comedy were added by Belle, a burlesque queen; her boyfriend Pete, an ex-convict; and Mr. Brooks, a crooked lawyer who was blackmailing Minerva. The mystery, highlighted by a secret panel, murders, and strange happenings, kept the audience in suspense until the murderer was discovered.

Stephanie sat unaware of the approaching danger.

On March 29 and 30 the Senior Class of C.H.S., directed by Miss Nancy Bycroft and Miss Lila Harmon, gave a delightful presentation of "Professor, How Could You!" a comedy in three acts, written by Anne Coulter Martens.

The play itself was centered around Keats Perry, an arrogant professor of history who was forced into marriage in order to become dean of the university. Because of his fear of the modern women of today, he employed John Appleby to select three young girls from which to choose his spouse.

His friends and relatives conducted a secret poll, each betting on a candidate to become the professor's wife. The fun began when all three girls decided to be his wife, causing wild conflict and hilarious love scenes.

The situations which followed kept the audience roaring with laughter and provided a very enjoyable evening for all.

Seniors at Luncheon and Prom

Luncheon speakers conversed while eating.

Seniors "gobbled" the swiss steak.

The Juniors honored the Seniors at the Jr.-Sr. Luncheon on May 1. The students were dismissed from school at 12:30 and upon their arrival at South Side School, the students and guests were welcomed by Master of Ceremonies—Dave McGuckin. Rev. Clark of the Church of the Nazarene pronounced the invocation and dinner was served. At the conclusion of the meal, Dave Reash and Greg Young, Jr. and Sr. class presidents, humorously remarked about the Class of '68's past. Mr. Bailey gave a brief talk and all returned to the Cinema to watch the Academy Award winning picture, "In the Heat of the Night."

Working under the Supervision of Mr. Gessler and assisted by social chairmen, Anna Dunbar and Dave McGuckin, the Class of '69 honored the seniors for a second time on May 17 with a wonderful prom entitled "Fantasy Land." Dressed in elf and tree costumes, thirteen freshmen served refreshments. After spending a memorable evening in "Fantasy Land," at midnight the couples changed into informal attire and attended the after-prom, "Gay Paree" at Joshua Dixon. Round and square dancing and Barney Bean, who drew portraits from initials furnished special entertainment.

New York or bust!

After begging, pleading, and sometimes arguing, the 1968 Clipper Trippers gathered enough money for their trip to New York.

To raise the required funds, the members engaged in many activities. Light bulb sales, pop bottle collections, and a raffle were some of their money-making projects. In addition to these, the seniors also sponsored the Clipper Tripper Variety Show April 5, 1968, in the school auditorium. Gary Schlag and Tom Smith, dressed in hillbilly duds acted as Masters of Ceremonies. Talent of every kind was displayed from a vaudeville ventriloquist act and a Dixie Land band to a psychedelic musical group.

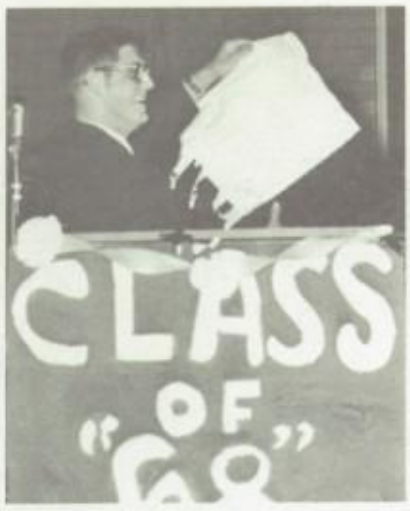
The show was a great success and on June 2 eleven members departed for New York to have an unforgettable time.

Dr. Herford, an obstetrician, discovered it takes only 9 months instead of 11.

"If you love me and I love you," recited romantic Bob Gerner.

Laurie Magill showed her crying heart.

Jim Moser received his gift—a security blanket.



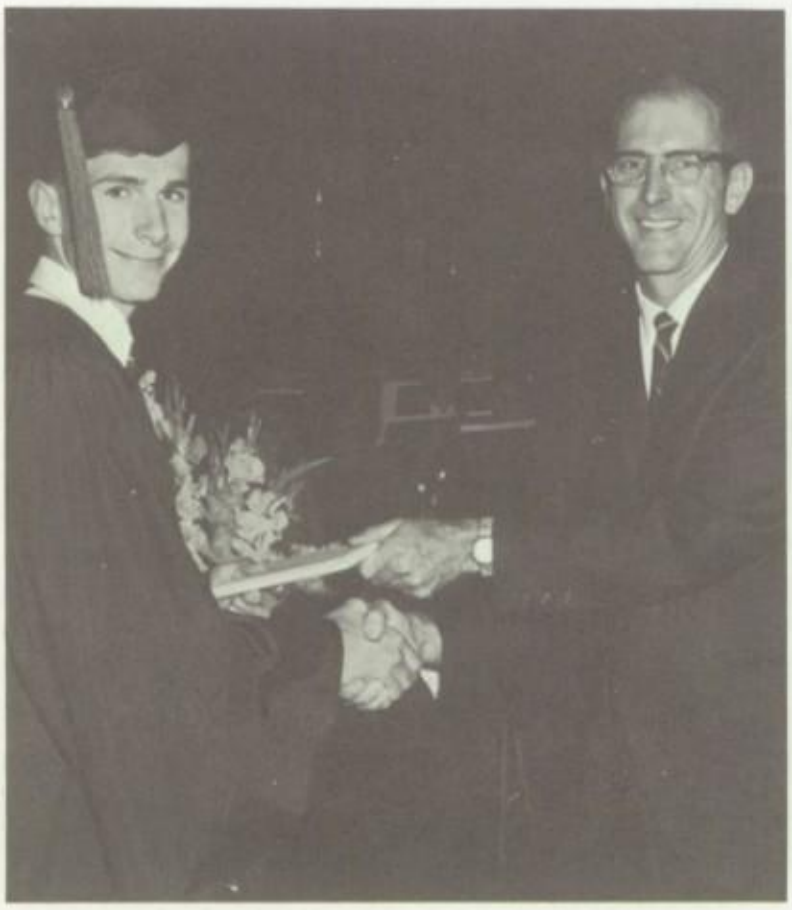
"Well, what have we here?"

Seniors awaited Class Day festivities.

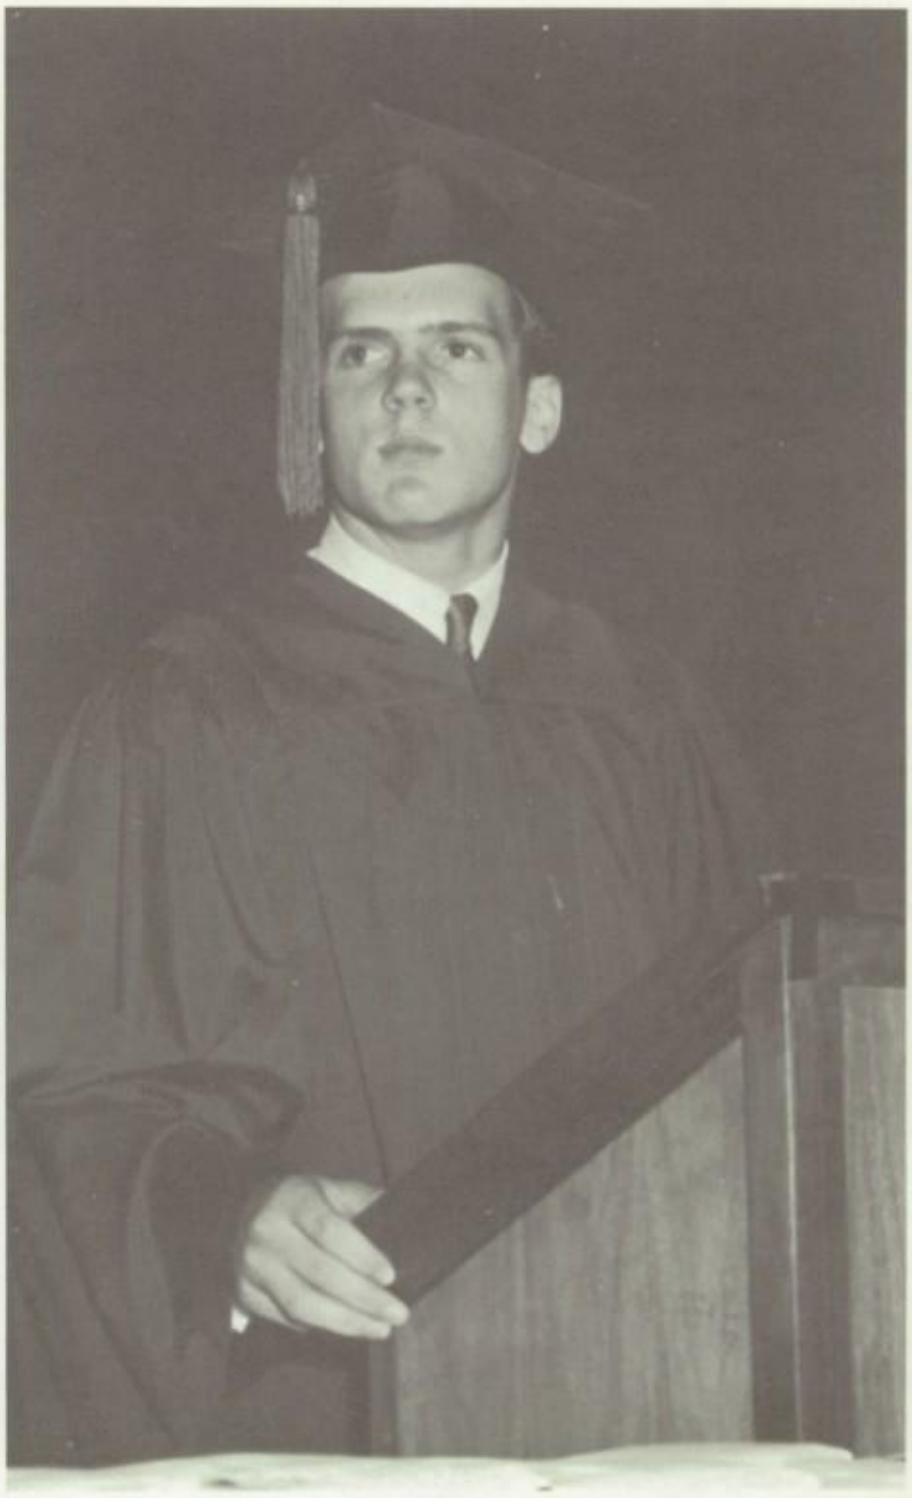
Class Day theme depicted departing Seniors

The senior chorus members sang "Walk Hand in Hand."

The 1968 Class Day program was held May 23 in the gymnasium. The theme was "The Road Runner"—depicting the soon departing Seniors. Dave Reash and Gayle Pancake escorted the Seniors to their seats. The festivities began with Greg Young, president, presenting the Class of 1968 and welcoming parents and guests. Lonnis Sposetta and Bob Gerner read the class prophecy followed by the distribution of gifts to each of the 96 seniors by Patty Cope and George Lynn. Class Day was highlighted with some of the talented class members providing a variety of entertainment. The class will was then read by Tom Golden and Penny Perrin. To conclude a most memorable day, the Class of '68 sang their class song, "Pathways of Knowledge."



Greg Young received diploma from his father.



Bill Gela delivered his commencement speech.

School's final hours

It was all over.

Baccalaureate was a solemn moment.

Seniors escorted to "Pomp and Circumstance."

Mixed emotions were seen at commencement.

Now seniors, soon graduates.

inevitably became fewer

The long list of senior activities now came to a close. On May 26, the baccalaureate service was held in the gymnasium. Reverend Sayres of the Baptist Church presented the stimulating sermon, "Seek Ye First." The final and most memorable service for the Class of 1968 was commencement held on May 31 in the gymnasium. The top five seniors gave their student addresses based on the topic "Wonders to Proclaim." The speakers and their addresses included: Dean Stamp—"The Secret of Existence," William Cyrus—"Propagation," Pamela Lipe—"Sleep," Elizabeth Crawford—"God's Power," and William Gela—"The Human Brain." Dale Young, President of the Board of Education, presented each senior with his diploma. With mixed emotions the Class of 1968 filed out to the recessional, "Royal Pageantry."

The Seniors are now Alumni.

"And God said . . .", quoted Elizabeth Crawford.

displayed talents in many ways

As the Class of '69 became juniors, they began their busiest year at C.H.S. They again selected round rings, and also presented their class play, "Web of Murder."

During the football and basketball seasons the class worked in the refreshment stands to raise money for the junior-senior luncheon and the prom. As a final highlight on May 17, the high school gym was magically transformed into a "Fantasy Land" of fairy book characters.

Sophomores vied for

As sophomores, the Class of 70 had a busy exciting year. They began by electing Bill Newell as president to lead their class through their many activities. They formed the first Latin Club at C.H.S. and presented a Latin skit at a special assembly. To help their class earn money, they organized homeroom jitney sales, collected gold tapes, and each person brought a penny a week. In both basketball and football the sophomores had good seasons, ending with a 5-3 record in football, and 9-9 in basketball. They also proved to be a great threat by challenging the seniors for the spirit jug at the pep rallies.

The Class of '71 began molding their entire high school career this year. Jeff Ziegler was chosen as president to lead his classmates through their first year of high school. The freshmen excelled in both scholastic and athletic fields. They began their courses of study and participated in scholarship tests for the first time. The frosh cheerleaders, Terry Stamp, Lana Warner, Susan Poirier, and Leda Knisely, cheered their basketball team to a victorious season. The team finished with an 11-3 record and placed second in the tournaments. They also participated in social activities by joining various clubs and organizations. By the end of the year, the freshmen were closely interwoven in the great world of C.H.S.

This year the Class of '72 returned to C.H.S. as eighth graders, more experienced and more confident. After electing Mike Gaughan as president of their class, they began their busy, funfilled year. The junior high football team composed of 8th and 9th graders, had a successful season, while their basketball team, which handed Boardman its only defeat of the season, had 11 wins and only 3 losses. The eighth graders completed the year by having conferences with Mr. Linn, enabling them to plan their high school courses.

Seventh grade

This year's seventh graders had their first taste of high school life—crowded halls, changing classes, and pep rallies. This was also the first year for the Little League Football. Coached by Mr. Wadman, their basketball team won eight games and lost three. Tim Gustafson was selected to serve as class president and led the class in their first year at the high school. The seventh graders also participated in their first Science Fair. Some members of the class worked with the Beacon Staff on the school newspaper.

The gum-chewing, talking seventh graders soon learned that the detention system was strictly enforced.

The 1967-68 Junior High Clipper teams under the direction of coaches Bellisari, Ramsey, Gessler, and Wadman proved to be powerhouses in their league. Tough schedules in football and basketball tournament meets have given these young men the experience of playing against stronger and larger opponents. The future high school players should provide a steady supply of well-trained, well-disciplined athletes who will make their classmates proud to be Clippers.

Man is challenged today to excel in almost every endeavor . . . those who do succeed often trace the beginnings of their performance pattern to accomplishment in high school and to those who offered stimulation and inspiration in these formative years. Josten's has long been a partner to these educational leaders in providing a means of motivation and the rewards of recognition, and Josten's products have become tangible symbols honoring perseverance and achievement.

The class ring is representative of the fine traditions of school spirit and unity ☐ The yearbook provides a lasting memento of the year's accomplishments ☐ The diploma is a lifelong record of scholastic success ☐ The graduation announcement heralds this achievement ☐ Awards recognize academic and athletic leadership.

HURRAH FOR THE CLASS OF 1968!
BORN INTO ONE OF HISTORY'S MOST EXCITING AND EXCITED PERIODS . . . BETTER EDUCATED, MORE AWARE, MORE CHALLENGED THAN ANY CLASS THAT HAS GONE BEFORE . . . AND FACING YEARS OF EXPLORATION AND DISCOVERY IN ALL THE ARTS AND SCIENCES BEYOND ANYTHING WE HAVE YET IMAGINED. IT'S GOING TO BE DIFFICULT FOR YOU TO KEEP YOUR HEAD IN THE STARS AND YOUR FEET ON THE GROUND, BUT THE WORLD NEEDS THAT KIND OF IMAGINATION COMBINED WITH PRACTICALITY MORE THAN IT EVER HAS BEFORE.
WILL YOU RISE TO THE OCCASION? ONLY YOU CAN ANSWER THAT!

YOUTH AND THE WORLD

"There is many a battle that's yet to be won,
There is many a glorious deed to be done.
The world is still young!
For the youth at its door.
There are tasks some shall do never dreamed of before.
It is not an old world, worn and wrinkled and gray,
It's a world that is being reborn every day."

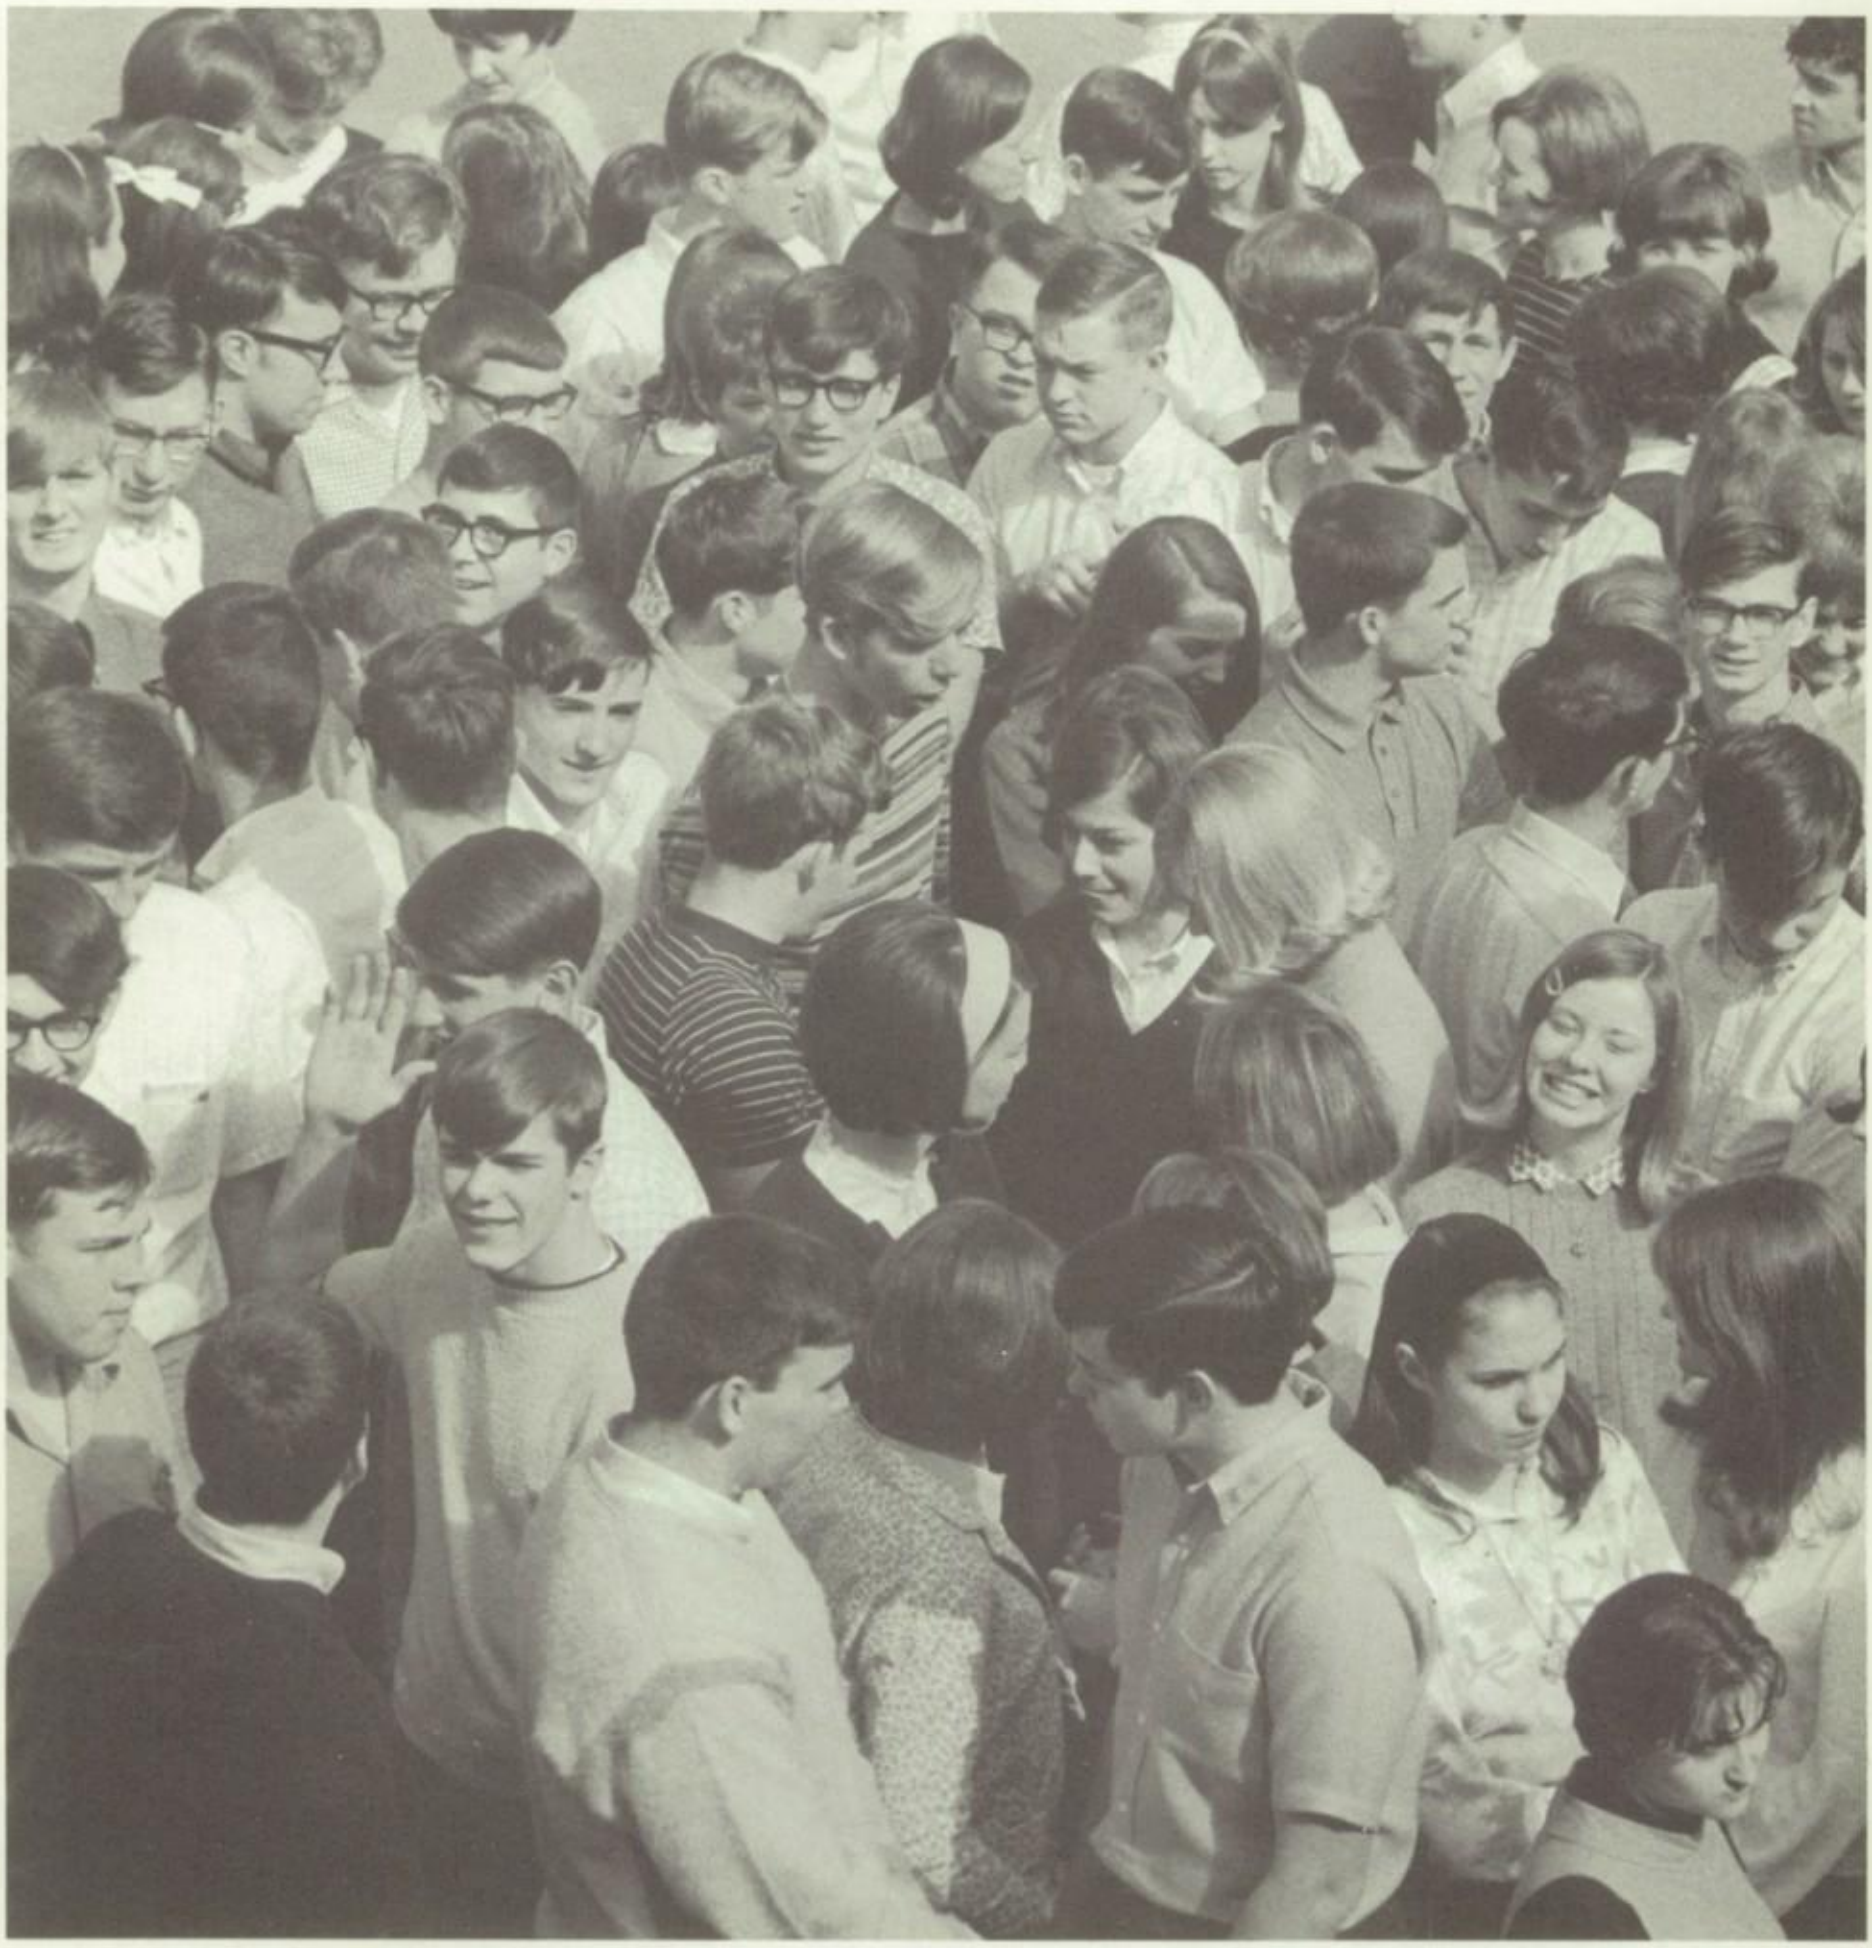
Without those people and firms who have contributed to the operation of The Clipper, without those whose names are recorded on the preceding pages of advertising, production of this book would have been impossible. The ties these people have to Columbiana High School are not limited to this advertising section, but consist in the support and interest they have always shown in the Columbiana Exempted Village Schools.



During our past four years of high school we Seniors have been united together as a class. But never again will this bond be regained, for we are now people on the move.
